Editorial board:

The Editorial Board of The International Journal of Oncology consists of experts in cancer research who are members of The Editorial Academy of The International Journal of Oncology.

EDITORIAL ACADEMY FOR INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF ONCOLOGY

To become a member of The Editorial Academy you should submit your CV to the Editorial Office. To qualify as a member of The Academy each editor must have 1000 citations of his work as first author or over 2000 in total or over 100 publications in refereed journals and to have contributed significantly to cancer research.

International Journal of Oncology is publishing a regular feature on the achievements of the members of The Academy. A brief (up to 800 words) autobiographical resume of research career and achievements of the individual concerned should be submitted. This would be printed on the front pages of the journal and advertised by a 12x9 cm colour photograph.

Publication data: The International Journal of Oncology is published monthly. Author index and contents can be found at the end of each volume.

Bibliographic services: Articles in the International Journal of Oncology are listed in bibliographic services, including Current Contents/Life Sciences, Science Citation Index, Scisearch, Research Alert, Index Medicus/MEDLINE, BIOSIS, Chemical Abstracts Service, Cambridge Scientific Abstracts, Sheffield University Biomedical Information Service and Current Awareness in Biological Sciences.

Copyright: Once the manuscript has been published the legal ownership of all published parts of the paper has passed from the Author(s) to the journal.
